

PATIENT

I don't care how hurt I am. I ain't telling you shit. That's just part of the game baby. Sometimes you get hit first. Either way, even if I was about to go out, I still wouldn't say nothing to you pigs cause I know this ain't no precinct and you've got none of that so called jurisdiction here. Take that bullshit as game somewhere else man, you know I'm not the one. Just make sure you and your sorry ass partner are ready for what's coming to you when I get outta here.
