

DETECTIVE

You can call it crazy and you can call me whatever you like but I know I saw something else out there on the road that night. It wasn't just us and you know it. (BEAT) The whole force thinks I'm a kook just cause you won't talk. For what, what you got to protect huh! I lost everything. The little bit of my reputation that's left is riding on this. You haven't done anything but make this worse and there's nothing I can do if you don't talk. (BEAT) Just say something dammit!
