

PATIENT

I knew something was wrong when she started sweating and freaking out right away. The stuff works fast but not that fast. Before I knew it she was out cold. It just happened so quick. (BEAT) But, I already told you I didn't know that those pills had fentanyl in them. Or where they really came from. We got them at the festival. I wasn't trying to hurt anyone. Candace and I just wanted to have a good time like we did every year.(BEAT) This wasn't supposed to happen. She wasn't supposed to die. I'm lucky.
